Broadway High is ever ready, to obey a noble call;
And in eager faithful service, lends a helping hand to all.
In each duty undertaken, it will greatest pleasure find,
Marching on to high endeavor it will never lag behind.

Broadway High is always aiming at some service good and true,
Deeds of helpfulness to render with a will to dare and do.
Thus it strives with earnest effort for the goals yet unattained,
Marching on and upward ever till each cherished goal is gained.

Chorus

With brave hearts we march together,
With new faith we greet each sun.
Willing hands and best endeavor
Leaving no set task undone.

Autumn

DEIDRES RITCHIE

Activities

*When Autumn like a burnished copper beauty
Turns to gypsy in a harmonizing gold,
What soul so dead or bound so close to duty
Cannot marvel at her colors manifold?
And walk in woodlands that seem quite enchanted*

Where this gypsy maid has touched with magic wand

*Each red berry and flame leaf and then granted
Free admission to the populace beyond?*

*Not for long will Autumn gypsy tarry.
Lure of the road calls her quickly to depart.
King Winter enters, brusquely, yet more wary,
Yet to view this lovely tapestry in art.
His Majesty is custodian, keeper of the key,
Placing snowy sheets on Autumn's Artistry.*

Parent-Teacher Night

Creative English Class makes debut by giving play entitled "No Time For Teachers."

Thanksgiving

A black and white photograph showing the silhouette of a church with a prominent steeple. The church is set against a bright, hazy sky. To the left of the church, there is a large, dark, leafy tree. To the right, there are some bare, spindly trees. The foreground is dark and indistinct, possibly a field or a path.

As we left our books and desks for two day's rest and looked forward to a golden brown turkey surrounded by luscious foods of various types, America stopped; and following the habits of her early Fathers, bowed her head, giving thanks for her bountiful blessings.

Winter

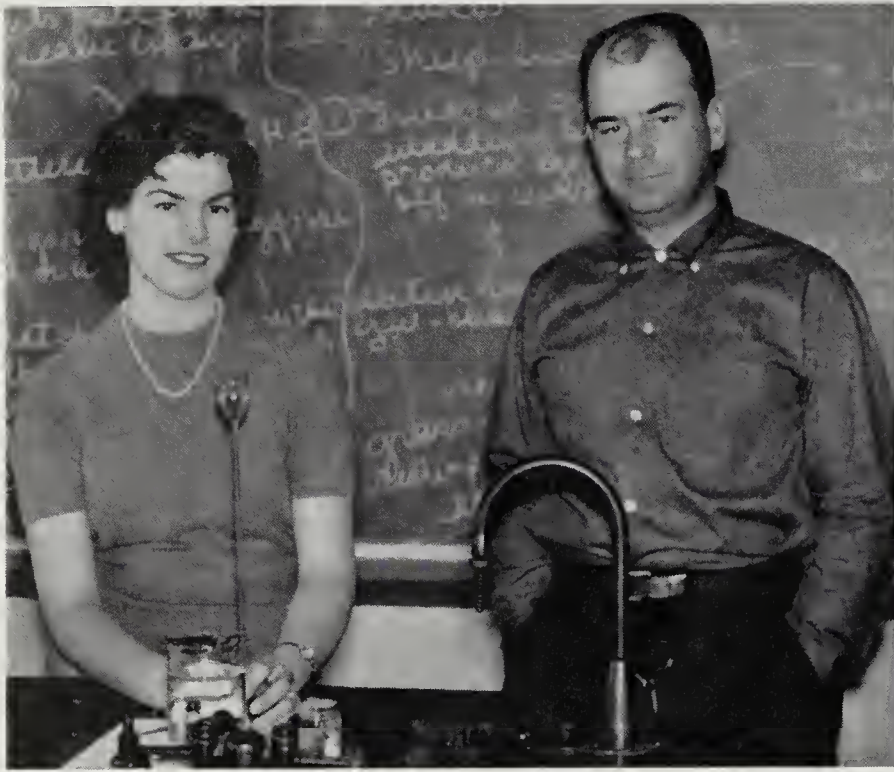

Activities

*Announced by all the trumpets of the sky,
Arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
Seems nowhere to alight: the whited air
Hides hills and woods, the river, and the heaven,
And veils the farmhouse at the garden's end.
The sled and traveler stopped, the courier's feet
Delayed, all friends shut out, the housemates sit
Around the radiant fireplace, enclosed
In a tumultuous privacy of storm.
Come, see the north wind's masonry.
 . . . the mad wind's night-work,
The frolic architecture of the snow.*

Spring

Activities

*The Dogwood holds a torch at night —
A floral taper burning white —
To flash the woods and pasture
lane
For browsing beasts and sprouting grain.*

*The Dogwood lifts its bracted

In old Virginia's springtime
hours;
True emblems of her cheer and
grace,
Engraved upon the human face.*

Junior-Senior Entertainment

A Mexican Setting, A Floor Show, and Dancing to Sweet Music — Juniors entertain the Seniors of 1958.

Not Finished . . .

Just Begun

*As a glowing sunset draws a perfect day
to a rewarding close
So graduation brings our brief years
together as a class
to an impressive height.
Here we stand at one of the greatest moments of our lives —
The occasion when we will last be joined
together as a class.
Let us review joyfully
the wonderful times
Let us value sincerely
the strength-building hardships
Let us use past successes to motivate us
to higher aspirations.
Let us look with anticipation into the future —
As we go forward, the graduating class of 1959,
at Broadway High School,
Let us display qualities of
Superior strength of character
Unquestionable integrity
Indomitable courage
and
A dedicated love for God
and our fellowmen.*
